delay and as quickly as possible. It did not matter, whether the corn and the other crops were already ripe or not, because the Soviets wanted to carry out major exercises in this area for some time. In order to speed up the harvest, the Soviets promised to dispatch details of Soviet soldiers who would help the farmers. On 7 August large-scale harvesting had started in the Knoblauch area, north of Ketzin. Soviet soldiers were not noticed.  2. On 16/17 August, the bulk of the units of Doeberitz post, definitely including the whole of the artillery unit and Engineer Unit Timoshenko, left all barracks installations by road in a western direction, presumably for the Ketzarea. In the evening on 16 August and in the morning on 17 August the entraining of approximately 120 x T-34s from the Adler/Loewen Kaserne (2063) in Doeberitz was observed at the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station.  Allegedly the units are to return on 25 August.	g zin
Comment. According to the observations made in the area west of the Doeberitz training grounds and in the Doeberitz post, the bulk of the 1st lecz Div. and of the 2d Light Arty Brig has departed on 16/17 August for a presumably 7-day exercise.	25X1
